

Inter – League Publication Board

Publisher of Reformed Study Material

Box 445 – Fergus, Ontario – N1M 3E2

www.ilpb.ca

OLD TESTAMENT BOOKS

April 2013

Genesis by I. de Wolff

The author explains why it is so important for the church of all ages to know the great works of God, described in Genesis. He discusses the main points in detail, placing them against the background of other relevant Biblical passages which is a great help in discussion $17.00

Foundations: Sermons on Genesis 1-3 by P.H. Holtvluwer

Suitable for personal meditation or for reading in public worship, this book contains 13 sermons which dig into the treasures of the opening chapters of the Bible. All proceeds to the Reformed Reading Room in Recife, Brazil..... $15.00

God Comes to His People: Outlines on Exodus (2 Vol) by B. van Zuijlekom

Outlines on the Book of Exodus. Every outline includes discussion questions. (Published by Pro Ecclesia Publishers) $ 9.00 ea

Shadows of the Light by Joh. deWolff (Published by Pro Ecclesia)

Outlines on Leviticus. Every outline includes discussion questions. Published by Pro Ecclesia Publishers.....$ 9.00

Enumerations in the Wilderness (2 volumes) by H.M. Ohmann (Published by Pro Ecclesia)

Outlines on the book of Numbers $14.00

Outlines of the Book Deuteronomy. The words of the Divine Great King. by G. van Rongen

This book deals with God's covenant with His people that is reaffirmed just before Israel's entry into Canaan. This covenant followed the pattern of contemporary suzerainty treaties. Rev. Van Rongen explains the components and significance of Deuteronomy according to this pattern. Discussion questions and hints for the "introducer" are included..... $ 10.00

Joshua by H.M. Smit

This book deals with the fulfillment of God's covenant promises to Abraham. We see that Israel's possession of Canaan was not an end to itself, but a guarantee of the eternal homeland. That is what still lies ahead for us. For that reason it is very fruitful to read and discuss the book of Joshua. The events in Joshua form a shadow of what is still to come..... $10.00

There was no king in Israel... (Published by Pro Ecclesia)

Outlines on the Book of Judges $ 9.00

Messianic Motherhood and The Significance of the Book of Ruth by H.J. Nijenhuis and S. Cnossen

Though human minds may marvel at the choice of women like Tamar, Rehab, and Bathsheba, God has a special purpose with his choice of maternal ancestors for Christ. Rev. Nijenhuis explains the importance of the messianic mothers' relationship with each other through the Lord Jesus Christ. The outlines on Ruth focus on the waywardness of God's people and their growing realization that peace and prosperity can only come through obedience to the Lord. While the people of Israel pursue their own ways, the Lord prepares the way for an earthly kingship which will bring forth the heavenly King, through the Messianic mother, Ruth $11.00

A King According to God's Will: The Messianic Kingship of David and Solomon by H. Geertsma

Rev. H. Geertsma takes a closer look at the reigns of King David and King Solomon. In great detail he explores why the Messianic Kingships of David and Solomon are blessed. Each outline describes the theme of the text, provides verse by verse commentary, including applicable questions, explores the work of God in each account and gives helpful hints to induce a fruitful discussion $11.00

Elisha the Prophet by G. van Rongen

This book describes the work done by the covenant God in the days of Elisha. The prophet had to announce the blessing and the curse of God's covenant in the situation of his own times. God's Word needed to be accepted. Woe unto them who were unwilling to do so. However, a faithful remnant was comforted and encouraged. This book may be helpful in keeping us with God's Word, in teaching us the riches and the responsibilities of being "children of the covenant". Published by Pro Ecclesia Publishers. $ 10.00

Purim: Book of Esther by J.R. Wiskerke

Purim take the reader step by step through a dark period in church history. These steps are taken in light of the fact that God is never absent, even if His Name is not found in Esther's text. God upholds and protects his people, using the lives and unique circumstances of Esther and Mordecai $ 6.00

Job's Perseverance by P. DeJong

The book of Job has been called the book of God's self justification. It is not about a man who perseveres against adversity, but it is the self revelation of the LORD who perseveres in and through Job. The end of the book alludes to the future glory which Christ has been laid up as an inheritance for all who persevere in faith $ 6.00

God's Song Book for His People: About the Reading and Singing of Psalms by G. Kwakke / B. Vuijk

Outlines on the Book of Psalms. Published by Pro Ecclesia Publishers......$ 10.00

Be Wise by G. van Rongen

An introduction to the book of Proverbs $ 6.00

Ecclesiastes by M.J.C. Blok$ 6.00

This is not a book of futility and depression. Rather, it directs our thoughts to life from a covenantal perspective. The close relationship of Ecclesiastes with the rest of the Old Testament is stressed. Many New Testament passages also seem to originate in Ecclesiastes and the entire New Testament can be considered a continuous answer to the call of the preacher.

Meditations on Ecclesiastes by J. Moesker

Thirty-one short meditations based on key texts in the book of Ecclesiastes, this book is an excellent complementary book to the outlines of Ecclesiastes by M.J.C Blok. Reflecting on these meditations will expand your insight into Ecclesiastes and help to generate discussion $ 6.00

Song of Songs: As Rich as a King by Prof. Ohmann

In this study on the Song of Songs, Professor Ohmann explores the historical reality in which the book was written, and clearly sets out the meaning of the book. He explains the Song of Songs is a manual for those who will marry, and provides practical advice for parents. Professor Ohmann clearly shows how the way is still open for young people today to marry in the LORD and so be "Rich as a King" $9.00

Isaiah - The Redeemer is Coming: Outlines on Isaiah 40 - 66 by H.P. Dam

In Isaiah 40-66, the prophet Isaiah proclaims a period of restoration and grace to the people of Judah after the exile. In 10 outlines, Rev. Dam explores the prophetic words of Isaiah. Rev. Dam focuses on the fact that this restoration cannot be attained by human effort; it is a gift of God. The restorer/redeemer is the Servant of the LORD, the Lamb of God. Thought provoking questions are provided at the end of each outline $13.00

Isaiah Workbook: Chapters 40 – 66 by J. VanWoudenberg

This workbook is to help in preparing for and participating in Bible study. It is comprised of questions that look at what the text of Hebrews says and how it should function in our lives. The book is organized by Bible chapter, and provides about 20 questions per chapter with lines to write in your answers..... $ 16.00

Daniel - Redeemer Versus Destroyer by R. H. Bremmer

In exposing the struggle between the kingdom of God and Satan, Daniel speaks words of comfort which are closely linked to Christ's words while He was on earth and in His Revelation to the churches. Dr. Bremmer explains this struggle in Daniel's time and the prophesies with which Daniel may sustain God's people $10.00

By the good hand of our God upon us... by G. van Rongen (Published by Pro Ecclesia)
Outlines on the books of Ezra and Nehemiah $9.00

The Minor Prophets by P. Lok

All of the prophets from Hosea to Malachi are dealt with in this comprehensive outline. A time chart allows the reader to place each prophet in history. In a clear manner, the author shows how God's message to his people found expression in the words of individual men, underscoring God's covenant blessings and his righteous wrath. Good discussion provoking questions accompany each outline. An appendix lists suggested reference books $20.00

You Only (Amos) by P.G. Feenstra (published by Xulon Press)

Amos is predominantly a sermon of admonition, warning and judgment. It also announces and alludes to a glorious future for the people of God in the Messiah. As a popular commentary, "You Only" conveys how God breaks down all forms of self-styled worship so that His children would lean on the saving work of Christ alone $15.00

Jonah - God's Prophet: Outlines on the book Jonah by Dr. H.J. Room

A study of the Bible book Jonah is quite fascinating. Who does not know the history that is told there? Familiarity with this material seems to take away the challenge of renewed study. Generally speaking, you already know what it is all about. Yet, through careful reading of this Bible book, you will come across an increasing number of surprises. These 7 outlines on Jonah will take you through this Bible book verse by verse. Questions at the end of each outline will help to generate discussion$12.00

Micah - None Like Thee by Cl. Stam

This book offers a meditative excursion into the prophecy given in the book of Micah. Originally published as a series of sermons, its gives a lively and comprehensive look into the time of Micah, focusing on God's message for today in this prophesy. Although it does not offer verse by verse explanation, None Like Thee gives the main theme and lines found in the book of Micah, and as such is a valuable study guide$10.00

Haggai by A.B. Roukema

Reconstruction of the temple, God's dwelling place, a visible sign and prophecy of the coming Kingdom of the Messiah must have first priority for the small group of returned exiles. Rev. Roukema outlines the historical setting and the four prophecies in this book $2.00

NEW TESTAMENT BOOKS

Living Parables by P.J. Trimp (Published by Pro Ecclesia)

Bible studies on the parables of Jesus$ 9.00

In the Word is Life - Gospel of John (2 volumes) by A.I. Krijtenburg (Published by Pro Ecclesia).....$10.00 ea.

The Acts of the Apostles by C van den Berg

A thorough verse by verse explanation of the Acts of the Apostles, in two volumes. This is a most helpful series of the Bible studies on the worldwide church gathering work of our Lord Jesus Christ. The witness of the Apostles through the proclamation of Christ's church will reach the very end of the earth till the day of his return Vol 1 ($12.00); Vol 2 ($14.00)

Romans - Justified by Faith by Johannes Franke

This 270 page commentary offers an in depth study of Paul's letter to the Romans, by a prominent Dutch theologian. A welcome addition to your personal or church library$21.00

1&2 Corinthians by L. Selles1 Cor. ($12.00); 2 Cor. ($10.00)

A series of outlines on the epistle of Paul to the Corinthians. This series begins with a discussion of Acts 18, and then deals with Paul's preaching in Corinth. Topics covered include the gifts of the Spirit, the Resurrection of Christ and His Church.

Galatians by M.J.C. Blok

This book consisting of seven outlines on the Epistle to the Galatians has been revised and re-published by the ILPB. An excellent study guide with topics for discussion following each outline$5.00

Ephesians – A Mirror of the Manifold Wisdom of God by J. Smelik

Outlines on Paul’s letter. to the Ephesians. $ 5.00

Ephesians Workbook by Rev. J. VanWoudenberg

This guide is meant to help in preparing for and participating in study societies. It is comprised of questions that look at what the text says and how it should function in our lives$5.00

Philippians - Enduring Joy by K. Deddens

This booklet contains 5 outlines on Paul’s letter to the Philippians. In these outlines we discover how Paul communicates his love and concern for this New Testament congregation. Questions for discussion follow each outline$6.00

Colossians by W.G. DeVries

The church at Colossae was suffering from false teachings. The Holy Spirit, through Paul, refutes these heresies, and sets forth the majesty and glory of the Lord. The deceptive emptiness of human philosophy is contrasted with the fullness and sufficiency of Christ. Finally, Paul cites the faith and experiences of his readers and encourages them to live as members of Christ. This series of 10 outlines will aid the reader in studying this epistle, that “as therefore you received Christ Jesus your Lord, so live in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving$6.00

1 & 2 Timothy (workbook) by D.G.J. Agema

This workbook has 10 outlines that cover 1 and 2 Timothy, chapter by chapter. This guide is meant to help in preparing for and participating in study societies. Each outline is comprised completely of questions that look at what the text says and how it should function in our lives$9.00

1&2 Timothy, Titus and Philemon by A. Souman

This study guide contains 11 outlines on Paul’s letters to Timothy, Titus and Philemon. Bold lettered headings , within each outline, help the reader to understand the main thrust of each chapter/ text. Each outline concludes with questions and points for discussion$8.00

Hebrews by L. Selles

Previously published by the I.L.P.B. in 1966, this book has been revised and updated by the late Rev. Selles. Each chapter has several questions that will lead to interesting discussion and debate $14.00

Hebrews Workbook by Rev. J VanWoudenberg

This workbook is to help in preparing for and participating in Bible study. It is comprised of questions that look at what the text of Hebrews says and how it should function in our lives $9.00

The Letter of James: A study guide (workbook) by R. Schouten

Rev. Schouten presents this series of discussion questions with the hope that God's people may come to better understand and appreciate the life-changing teaching found in the letter of James. The questions (workbook style), are designed to promote a careful read of each section of James $8.00

Stand Fast in the True Grace of God: Outlines on the Epistles of Peter by J. Smelik

This book of 12 outlines includes an introduction to the epistles of Peter, and a summary, main thoughts, notes on the text, and discussion questions of each section of the epistles. $ 10.00

The Letters of John and Jude by D. Niewenhuis, H.D. VanHerksen (Published by Pro Ecclesia) $6.00

Revelation of John - What Is and Must Soon Take Place (2 volumes) by L. Selles

Much more than outlines, these two books provide a valuable exposition of the Revelation to John and are excellent guides to understanding the book’s message to us today Vol 1 ($11.00); Vol 2 ($15.00)

CONFESSIONAL / CONTEMPORARY BOOKS

Believe and Confess Vol. 1 + 2 by C.G. Bos

Together, volume 1 and 2 contain thirty-seven outlines that explore Articles 1-37 of the Belgic Confession. Knowing what our confessions mean is never more critical than today, when the words “church unity” is on everyone’s lips. Topics for discussion are included in each outline Vol 1 ($15.00); Vol 2 ($16.00)

Both in Life and in Death by N. Gootjes

The topic of euthanasia is current and much debated. Does suffering serve a function? Are we to preserve life at all costs and resist death in all situations? Is death a natural consequence of life or is it foreign to human life. Are we to be active or passive with respect to life? These are some of the questions raised when confronted with our human frailty. In this booklet, Dr. Gootjes offers an overview of this topic$5.00

Call Upon Me by J. Westerink

This book deals with personal prayer and the practice of our prayer. The seventeen chapters say much about the difficulties that arise in prayer and the blessings that go with it. Above all, we see in this book, through the numerous Scriptural texts, that God’s Word teaches us to pray$13.00

Christ in the Family by W. Meijer

This book considers the seriousness of living with Christ in the family. It examines how we, with our families, must stand together in this world, in order to protect ourselves and our children from contamination by this world. This book reminds parents of our mandate to teach our children to live in Christ, to live in this world but not to be enticed by the evils of this world $7.00

Confess Your Faith by A.J. Pol

This booklet is a workbook for those preparing for their public profession of faith. It provides teachers and students with an opportunity to review and discuss fundamental themes of Scripture as summarized our confessions. Attention is also focused on the Church Order, liturgy, church history and the task of the church in this world. The questions in the form for the “Public Profession of Faith” are used as a point of departure for this review. This booklet includes a weekly schedule for catechetical assignments $4.00

Encounter with Evangelicals: For Better and For Worse by C. Bouwman

Text of a paper and the discussion of the 1993 annual combined meeting of the Men's and Women's Bible Study Clubs of Western Australia. Published by Pro Ecclesia Publishers.....$6.00

Doctrine of the Church in Reformed/Presbyterian Contacts by C. Bouwman (Published by Pro Ecclesia) $5.00

‘...encourage one another... A Study Guide’ by B. Vegter

Encouraging others isn’t always easy to do, but it is required by scripture; ‘But encourage one another daily, as long as it is called Today, so that none of you may be hardened by sin’s deceitfulness’ Hebrews 3: 13. This study guide has fifteen short lessons covering our relationships, in the home, at work and within the church community. To help the reader engage in meaningful reflection and application, the study guide also includes stimulating questions – with ample space for the reader to record their responses $8.00

Infant Baptism and Conversion by J. Douma

Time and again infant baptism is under attack. Rev. Douma uses this book to help its readers understand why infants of God fearing parents should be baptized $5.00

Lectures on the Church by J. Faber (Published by Pro Ecclesia) $5.00

A series of lectures: Church in scripture – Church in history – Church in kingdom

Notes on the Canons of Dort by C. Bouwman (Published by Pro Ecclesia) $15.00

Notes from a lecture series.

Outlines in Church History by G. Slings (Published by Pro Ecclesia) $6.00

Response to Your Baptism by K. Deddens

Dr. Deddens' book addresses the issue "making public profession of faith". This book speaks of the preparations, obligations and rich rewards which belong to such a profession. Some details from church history illustrate the doctrinal struggle of the church to remain true as confessed in the form. Self-examination, leading to profession of faith culminates in a life of blessing $9.00

Submitting to One Another out of Reverence for Christ by P.G. Feenstra

Eight sermons were put together into a book, all relating to the topic of marriage and family life. Rev. Feenstra's sermons teach the reader about marriage and the family, deep commitment and the consequence of sin infecting our relationships. Throwaway marriages, quickie divorces and subsequent break up of families do not leave us untouched $10.00

The Summary of Faith by K. Deddens

This small booklet gives the main points of our Reformed faith in concise question and answer format, based on the Three forms of Unity, Church Order and major points in church history $2.00

The Church in the Last Judgment by B. Holwerda

This book considers the role the Church plays in the end of days. The author gives perspective on how we should view the visions in the Book of Revelation: "All which Jesus Christ unleashed on the world...have but one aim. It is to bring the world to repentance and cause men to believe on the Word of Christ as it is proclaimed by the Church." $5.00

The Lord and Giver of Life by A. N. Hendriks

In 26 outlines Dr. Hendriks discusses scripture passages from Genesis to Revelation that enlighten us about the different facets of the work of the Holy Spirit. Knowledge of the work of the Holy Spirit is often still minimal. This book aims to increase and enrich this knowledge in the congregation; to help us better understand what the bible teaches about Him who renews our heart and guides our life $12.00

Watching Movies ... No? Yes? How? by N.H. Gootjes, J.Plug, J. Poppe

When former generations rejected movies as an inappropriate pastime, they used various arguments to defend their position. They emphasized the morally degrading character of this type of entertainment. Were their arguments wrong or do we know better? Has today's generation become so influenced that they are no longer sensitive to the danger of movies in this world? $6.00

What is your Answer? by M.H. Sliggers

The Book of Praise: Anglo-Genevan Psalter has an essential function in the worship service of the American/Canadian Reformed church. In his book, Rev. Sliggers examines the content of the Book of Praise, that is, orders of worship, liturgical forms, prayers and church order. This publication is intended as study material for Bible study groups. Therefore each Outline includes tips for the essay, and questions for discussion $15.00

You...His Child and You...His Guest by P.C. van Wijk

In this small booklet the author takes the children by the hand and leads them step by step to a better understanding of baptism and Holy Supper. In simple language he helps them discover the riches of their covenant relationship with the LORD, their God $6.00

You're Only Young Once by M.J.C. Blok (Published by Pro Ecclesia)

The ten commandments in the light of Proverbs $8.00
*Currently out of print. Reprint date is unknown.

Note: Books published by Pro Ecclesia, come from Australia and could have a long delivery time.